Love is the greatest adventure

It all starts with an open heart. A sense of adventure. And now the same appetite for life that brought the two of you together has brought you here.

You're in great hands. At Virgin Holidays, we know a thing or three about throwing a party, and we're downright expert at understanding what makes a perfect destination wedding or celebration.

We know some extraordinary places, from sweeping bays of snow-white sands, to safari lodges perched above rolling savannah, through to an insider's NYC and the va-va-voom of Vegas.

And we know that every couple's budget and wishlist is different. It's why we've worked with like-minded resorts and hotels all over the world to offer a range of packages for every taste. Better still, combine your ceremony with a honeymoon at select resorts, and the wedding package will cost you nothing. Imagine that.

There's so much to see and dream about in these pages. And there's a lot to do before your big day. So get in touch, and let's get started. We can't wait to help you on your way to happily ever after.

Making special occasions extraordinary

If you're planning a celebration abroad, we'll help you raise the roof in style.

Here at Virgin Holidays, we've got serious form when it comes to best-ever moments. It's an idea at play in all the holidays we offer – and has been for over 30 years. The same focus has guided our Weddings Team to create a collection of wedding packages that deliver unforgettable romance, relaxation and fun. We're confident that what you're holding now will inspire you – and there's more in store on our website. And if you have another kind of celebration in mind, we've got that covered too...

Weddings

Imagine your perfect wedding. Now picture it unfolding at a postcard-perfect Caribbean resort, at the top of the Rockefeller Center in New York, or on a balcony overlooking the South African bushveld. Nothing would make us happier than to make these dreams a reality for you. What's more, choose to have your wedding and honeymoon at certain resorts and the wedding package will be free.

Honeymoons

Shake the last fragments of confetti from your hair, and the adventure has only just begun. Partnered with a destination wedding, your honeymoon can start with a single step onto a private beachfront deck, or with a short flight farther into paradise for a blowout multi-centre adventure. Better still, many of the hotels we feature will shower honeymooning lovebirds with unique extras.

Renewals

Why let newlyweds have all the fun? A love like yours should be celebrated more than once. So, whether you want to renew your commitment with a select group of friends or as part of a grand family get-together, our Renewal of Vows packages will make it feel like the first time.

Same-sex ceremonies

Love is love, and what we love is a good time, happy people, and something to celebrate. We can give you all that and more in Florida, Hawaii, Las Vegas, New York City, Canada or South Africa. You can also hold a commitment ceremony in any of these destinations, plus Thailand and Mexico.

Anniversaries

When someone makes the world a better place every day, you don't need an excuse to let them know. Whether you're celebrating 40 years together or just 68 days, 12 hours and 13 minutes (hey, any excuse for a party) we can help you create an anniversary you'll talk about for years.

Why have your big day with us?

Free weddings

Two words: free wedding. While we're tempted to drop the mic and just let that magical phrase hang in the air, we'd hate for you to think it's too good to be true. So here's how it works: we've put our heads together with key hoteliers in the Caribbean and beyond, creating complimentary wedding packages that let you have your big day at their resort at no extra cost, and then flow effortlessly into your honeymoon.

Wedding Dress Carriage Box

'Ruffled' and 'bride' are words that have no place together. It's why we exclusively offer a Wedding Dress Carriage Box service. Featuring a TARDIS-like capacity for the safe, easy transport of that all-important gown, it's compact enough to fit into your flight's overhead locker*. After all, you're not letting it out of your sight, right? What's more, thanks to an acid-free tissue insert, the box will provide attractive and enduring storage for years to come.

The Wedding Dress Carriage Box costs £39 and is available from our Weddings Team.

*If you take additional, internal flights, please check that the box complies with the airlines's baggage restrictions.

Inspiring choices

Even if you have an idea of where in the world you'd like to celebrate, we hope to inspire you to explore other possibilities. It's perfectly natural – between the brochure you're holding, online and in-store, we have hundreds of destinations to tempt you. Have you considered going multi-centre? Take your time, ask us anything. We're confident we have the perfect package for your celebration.

Virgin Holidays Gift List

Memories, not toasters, are the currency of a life well spent. It's why we created the Gift List – a free service that makes it easy for family and friends to contribute to the holiday of your lifetime.

Your personalised Gift List page is easy to set up and customise online, complete with your own introduction and imagery. We'll even provide Gift List cards to pop into your wedding invitations.

Here to help

Our Weddings Team is here to help your destination wedding go smoothly. We can provide invaluable local knowledge and advice so you feel 100% confident about your choice of destination. We'll check the documentation you need to get married there, too. Meanwhile, in-resort co-ordinators are on hand to answer your "Help, we're leaving in 24 hours!" queries and put your minds at rest. Doesn't that feel better already?

Group discounts

There's a good chance that, having decided to exchange vows on a palm-fringed sweep of sugar sand, you'd like to have more than just sea turtles waiting to catch the bouquet.

Because we want you to be able to share your big day with friends and family, we offer discounts for group bookings of 10 or more adults.

Destination extras

Many of our partners share our belief in the little things. A bottle of chilled Champagne. A basket of fresh fruit. Tropical blooms whose scent and colour fill your senses when you enter your room. Whether complimentary or specially requested, these touches can transform a holiday.

Stylish additions

Private transfers

In the spirit of protecting your zen calm between airport and resort, may we recommend a private transfer? Leave suitcase wrangling and stressful transfers behind, and waft into your hotel in air-conditioned comfort.

Room upgrades

So you've found a room you like. Why not ask us about upgrades that could transform it into a room you absolutely, pinch-me-is-this-real love? We offer all sorts of enhancements, from resort-best views and beachfront rooms to spacious suites you'll never want to leave.

Virgin Holidays v-room

Getting married or honeymooning with us? We'd like to give you a little something on the house – complimentary access for the happy couple to our exclusive airport departure lounge, the v-room. Our lounges at Manchester and Gatwick (opening 25 Jan 2017) are oases of calm before your flight, and offer free food, games, newspapers, WiFi and more. Only bar drinks cost extra. Just mention this offer when you call to book.

If you're travelling with family or friends, they can join you in the v-room from £24.50 per adult and £14 per child (2-11). Infants get to chill for free.

Flying from a different airport? You can still book executive lounges (charges will apply) and relax with a drink before you fly.

Flight upgrades

When it comes to airlines, we're proud to be snobs. Only the best will do. After all, we want you to have the flexibility and choice you want, to travel in style, and to arrive at your destination relaxed and ready to celebrate. If you're flying with Virgin Atlantic (our personal favourite), you can take your travel experience to a whole new level with one of our premium upgrades:

Premium Economy upgrades from £179 one way*

This is the life: dedicated check-in, priority boarding (well, you need time to enjoy your pre-flight glass of bubbly), a superior leather seat with extra space, a choice of dishes from our premium menu, plus priority disembarking for you and your luggage on arrival. Sweet.

Upper Class upgrades from £739 one way*

Are you ready for this? Revel in the luxurious facilities of the Virgin Atlantic Clubhouse before you fly, then saunter to the onboard bar for drinks. Relax and enjoy imaginatively designed dishes and fine wines, then get some genuinely replenishing rest in a super-comfortable Upper Class Suite with a fully flat bed.

*One-way supplements to the Economy fare

Advance check-in

We want that holiday feeling to start as soon as possible. Check in for your flight online before you arrive at the airport, then all you need to do is drop off your luggage.

Concierge service

When you're exploring a new place, nothing beats having insider knowledge on tap. The best bars, the most beautiful views, where the locals eat... When you book to stay at certain resorts with us, you'll have the opportunity to quiz one of our experienced reps before and during your stay. Plus, they can help you organise extras like tickets to events or attractions. Come on, let's make that special occasion really special.

Seclusion

If you crave a private ceremony with a select few, far from the cares of the world, we'll help you find that happy place. The ultra-luxurious One&Only Le Saint Géran (p95) stretches out on its own private Mauritian peninsula. Intimate couples resort Rendezvous (p38) on St Lucia is a boutique gem of a hotel with secluded gardens and a divine spa. And at Maya Ubud Resort & Spa (p105), you're surrounded by serene, lush rice paddies in the cultural heart of Bali.

Adventure

If your wedding is just the latest in a string of adventures, we'll take you where the action is. The Fairmont Chateau Whistler (p89) sits at the base of Canada's Blackcomb Mountain, offering skiing and snowboarding in the winter, and hiking and mountain biking in the summer. Go on safari and explore the South African bushveld at Ulusaba Private Game Reserve (p101), or hit the Strip in Vegas after a helicopter ride to get married in the awe-inspiring Valley of Fire (p77).

Same-sex

Some destinations just know how to do things right. Miami (p69) has beaches for days, world-class clubs and the hippest Art Deco hotels. In NYC there are few wedding venues with better views and better vibes than the state-of-the-art Top of the Rock (p83) observation decks at Rockefeller Center. And for a South Beach feel in the good-times capital of the world (plus a very romantic four-acre garden), the Tropicana (p76) in Las Vegas is the place to go.

Destination

Inspiration

City

Does your sophisticated side yearn for a big-city backdrop to the big day? Then celebrate your union in Central Park (p83) with movie-set New York all around you. Tie the knot in the world-famous Chapel of the Flowers (p76), right on Las Vegas' magnificent neon playground – the Strip. Or choose Twelve Apostles Hotel & Spa (p100) and enjoy vibrant Cape Town and its soaring mountain surroundings.

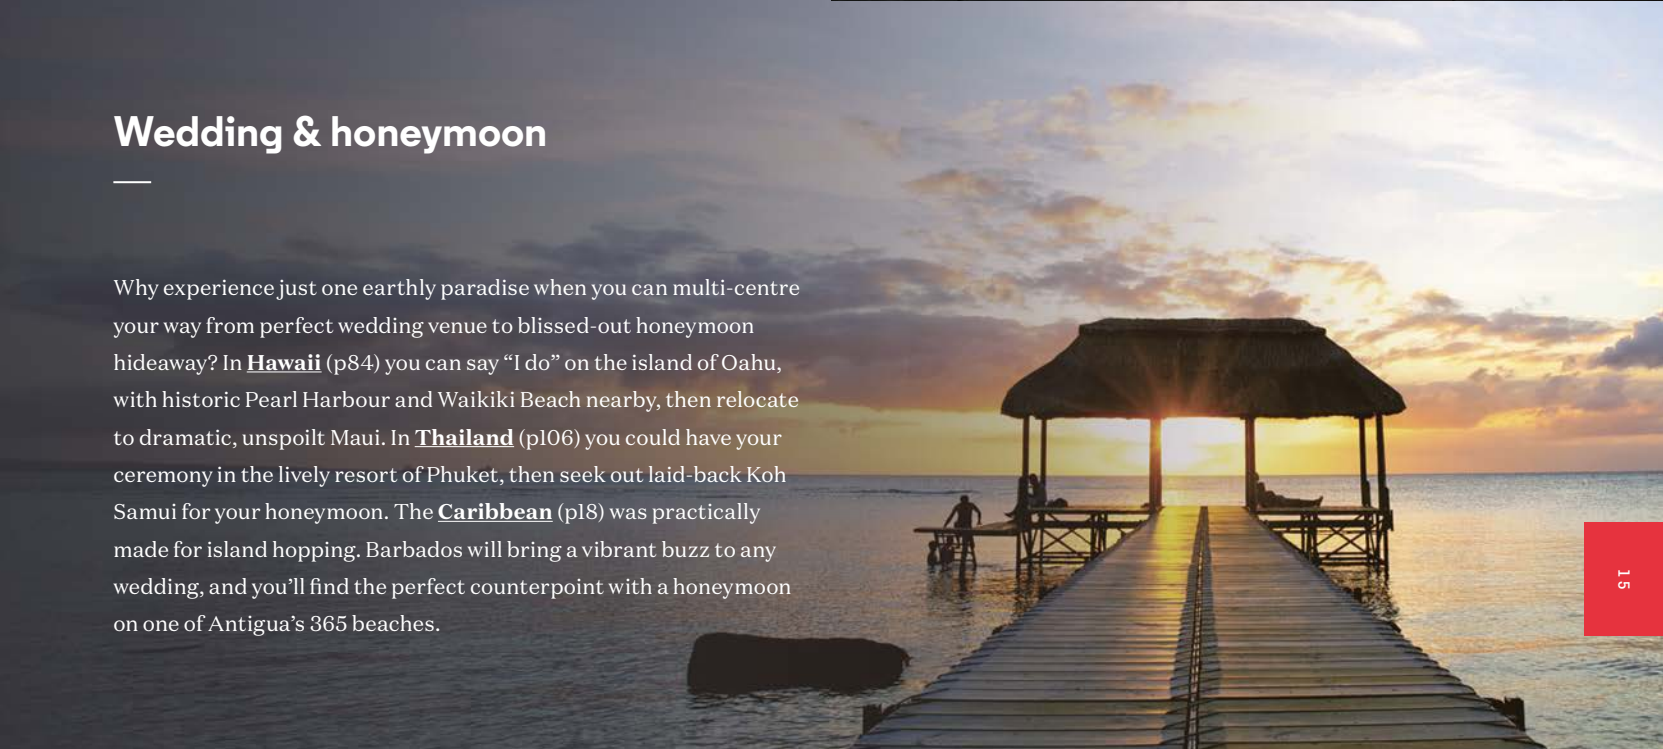

Family

Getting married with the tribe in tow? We can make it an experience for all ages (and the ages). Cypress Grove Lakeside Plantation (p65) offers romantic seclusion for the ceremony, combined with a family-friendly location in the heart of Orlando. Hilton Rose Hall Resort & Spa (p43) in Jamaica has an amazing kids' club and the island's largest waterpark. In Mexico, check out Moon Palace Golf & Spa Resort (p53) for outstanding facilities and daily activities for youngsters.

Wedding & honeymoon

Why experience just one earthly paradise when you can multi-centre your way from perfect wedding venue to blissed-out honeymoon hideaway? In Hawaii (p84) you can say “I do” on the island of Oahu, with historic Pearl Harbour and Waikiki Beach nearby, then relocate to dramatic, unspoilt Maui. In Thailand (p106) you could have your ceremony in the lively resort of Phuket, then seek out laid-back Koh Samui for your honeymoon. The Caribbean (p18) was practically made for island hopping. Barbados will bring a vibrant buzz to any wedding, and you'll find the perfect counterpoint with a honeymoon on one of Antigua's 365 beaches.

Hints tips

You can probably live without our thoughts on wedding train styles*, speech etiquette, and whether or not to pick Don't Stop Believin' for your first dance. However, we do know how to throw a heck of a party, and we've rounded up some top destination-wedding wisdom for you here.

Don't stress!

Our Weddings Team takes personal pride in answering your questions, helping you find your perfect wedding destination, and guiding you through the paperwork involved.

Want extras?

Local wedding co-ordinators are there for you. If you arrive and then decide you want to add extras to your package, just ask. They'll do everything they can to sort it.

Want to get hitched in a hurry?

No problem. New York, Las Vegas, Florida, Barbados, St Lucia and Antigua are your best bets for a speedy ceremony.

Going off the beaten track?

Bali, Mauritius or South Africa could be perfect, but be prepared to stay that little bit longer. Some countries have minimum residency periods.

Get the legal stuff sorted

If you're not sure what you need to get married at a specific destination, check out our table on page 112. And keep in mind that some countries require a visa to enter.

Show your paperwork

“Take your wedding certificate with you as proof, as this may be required to receive any special perks the hotel offers newlyweds.”

Alice Sinclair, Senior Weddings Co-ordinator

Let your loved ones spoil you

Register for our Gift List service at giftlist.virginholidays.co.uk and your friends and family can help you pay for your honeymoon or other special occasion.

Consider the climate

Pack and use suntan lotion – nobody wants tan lines on their wedding day. And gentlemen? Consider dark colours for your wedding attire. Light colours can really highlight perspiration.

Get your beauty sleep

“Be sure to get a good night's sleep the night before your wedding, and have a healthy breakfast that morning to ensure you're energised and looking your best for the big day!”

Ferlayna Mitchell, Chapel of the Flowers, Las Vegas

The language of love

Got your heart set on Mexico or Cuba? These countries require wedding documents to be translated, so that's another cost to consider.

Chilled-out fun is practically a way of life in the Caribbean. So can you imagine a better place for a beautiful, stress-free wedding?

Looking-glass seas, graceful arcs of sugar sand fringed by coconut palms, sensational food and music, and an infectious, easy-living flow – these elements unite the islands of the Caribbean.

But which will provide the backdrop to your big day? The rainforest-draped Pitons of St Lucia? One of Antigua's 365 beaches? The colonial elegance of Jamaica? The sophisticated, time-warp charm of Cuba?

Or maybe your sense of adventure will draw you to Mexico's Caribbean coast. Here, along the Mayan Riviera, you'll find mile after mile of brilliant white beaches, next-level luxury resorts with loads of activities, and the soaring stone ruins of an ancient, mysterious civilisation.

BOTTOM BAY, BARBADOS

At once familiar and exotic, Barbados blends snapshots of palm-fringed beaches, steel-pan melodies and sea turtle encounters with cricket matches, Anglican churches and a respect for afternoon tea that hasn't dimmed since the days of empire.

Whatever you want from your Bajan wedding, you'll find it here. Classic, modern, luxurious, or barefoot informal.

This is an island that begs to be explored. So hire a characterful Mini Moke (or a Jeep for a bit of air-conditioned luxury) and navigate from one unforgettable experience to another. Will it be the mouth-watering weekly cookout known as the Oistins Fish Fry? Or a visit to the wild and unspoilt east coast? Perhaps relaxing in the millpond-calm waters off the upmarket west coast is for you. Or maybe that all sounds a bit too much like hard work. If so, just stroll to the nearest beach bar and learn how to 'lime' with the locals.

Get married on the island of Barbados and you’ll find an incredible honeymoon adventure right on your doorstep.

Is spreading your honeymoon over multiple holidays a thing? It ought to be. Sure, it’s beyond lovely to flow seamlessly from your Barbados wedding into your Barbados honeymoon. But there’s just so much to enjoy on the island that – what with all the beach-based nothing-much you and your new Mr or Mrs will want to do – can one honeymoon ever be enough?

Still, let’s just say you do tear yourself away from your palm-dappled day bed and rent a car. Where do you go first? If it’s a Friday, you have to head to the Oistins Fish Fry, an open-air cookout where the air is alive with booming sound systems, clacking domino games and the aromas of freshly landed seafood being cooked to perfection. Come before 6pm and you’ll catch the lively fish market that precedes it. Just don’t worry if you see dolphin on the menu – it’s not Flipper, just the local name for mahi-mahi!

Fancy a bit of history on your honeymoon? Let’s ease in gently with a tour of the Mount Gay Rum Distillery. The tour is fascinating and only half an hour long which, bolstered by a little tasting session, is pretty much perfect. Just make sure you get a taxi for this outing, as you may want to continue your research at one of the island’s iconic rum shacks.

Bridgetown’s historic garrison is an education in more ways than one, and highly recommended. There’s loads to do: you can watch the changing of the sentry, take spooky night tours (complete with re-enacted grisly bits) and explore the 10,000+ feet of underground tunnels that were only recently rediscovered and reopened.

Talking of going underground, you must visit Harrison’s Cave. This extensive network of stalactite and stalagmite-encrusted caverns is navigated by a super-fun tram ride that’s worth the admission on its own.

Of course, you can’t come to Barbados and not head underwater and check in with the teeming coral reefs and their brightly coloured residents. For a unique experience you’ll want to try an Atlantis Submarines tour. They leave from Bridgetown Harbour and dive to a depth of around 150 feet. If you don’t yet have your diving badge (or just want to hold hands to a sonar soundtrack), this is a wonderful way to explore the deep.

And we haven’t even got to ‘liming’ yet – the art of drinking, eating and relaxing with friends, new and old, over long and lazy hours. Liming is a national obsession, but it’s not as easy as it looks. Thankfully, there’s no end of ramshackle beachside bars and encouraging locals to get you started. In liming as in life, practice really does make perfect.

Savannah Beach

Offering some of the best accommodation on the south coast, this historic plantation house is a truly magical setting for your special day. And with plenty of watersports on offer, plus two swimming pools, a spa and kids’ club, the special days will just keep coming.

It might as well rain confetti, so ideally suited is Antigua's geography to picture-perfect weddings. There are 365 secluded, powder-soft beaches – enough to surpass anyone's fantasies of a barefoot wedding ceremony. There's a Goldilocks climate, which is always 'just right'. Finally, an almost unbroken halo of coral reefs gives Antigua the formidable one-two of sheltered swimming and some of the finest snorkelling and diving in the Caribbean.

Needless to say, feeling like you've been happily shipwrecked on a deserted island is par for the course around here. But when (or maybe just if) you do crave a little civilisation, make tracks for English Harbour and its curiously familiar Georgian architecture. Here you can watch superyachts moor, dine on the freshest seafood, and stroll to the top of Shirley Heights to see a peach-pink sun set the skies ablaze at the end of another perfect day.

Like twin lightning rods for grand romance, St Lucia’s volcanic peaks, the Pitons, dominate this idyllic island, lending it a photogenic focus that has attracted lovers to its pristine shores for years.

Over the top? Hardly. Head to the south for luxury boltholes and ultra-exclusive sanctuaries that cling to verdant slopes and isolated bays. Look north for a more energetic vibe, with beautiful Rodney Bay’s resorts, restaurants and abundant opportunities for retail therapy. May sees the world-famous St Lucia Jazz Festival sweep the island off its feet and into a non-stop celebration of art, fashion and food.

Say “I do” and join the party or, for a more intimate experience, make tracks to the island’s mist-draped, mountainous interior and give in to the sweet surrender of a cocoa plantation spa.

The Knowledge:
St Lucia

Caroline
Gallichan, Eastern
Caribbean
Operations Manager, on how five years in
smitten.

What’s the number one reason people should choose St Lucia for a wedding or celebration?

Because it is just the prettiest, with the rainforests and rolling hills. I am totally in love with St Lucia having lived there for five years.

What’s the very first thing your visitors should do after they get settled?

Go and see your rep. They can tell you everything you need to know about the island, and give you lots of insider tips.

Tell us a cool secret about St Lucia...

Many Caribbean islands boast about their rum, but Chairman’s Rum is one of the best in the world and it’s produced locally.

What local specialities should visitors absolutely try?

Bake and salt fish is common here (dried salted cod, rehydrated, cooked with herbs and spices, and served with irresistible golden balls of fried bread).

Are there any unusual or unlikely items that you think visitors to St Lucia ought to pack?

First off, here’s what not to pack – any camouflage. Here, as in most of the Caribbean, any form of camouflage is banned and will be confiscated, and that also goes for camouflage bags and cases. As for what to bring? A good book or toy for a local children’s home is always a good idea.

Describe your all-time, absolute favourite view of St Lucia...

Gosh, that must be the view of the Pitons either from Jade Mountain or Sugar Bay resort, as you are right between the twin peaks there.

What’s your top tip for enjoying a stress-free wedding or celebration in St Lucia?

Arrive a few days before the wedding to make sure the legal stuff can be done in time. St Lucia has many bank holidays and, as with any Caribbean destination, things are done on island time!

Or why not combine a little time in both for an incredible blend of romance and adventure?

Jamaica is an island of thrilling contrasts, more than worthy of its ‘beloved wedding destination’ status.

Beloved Jamaica

NEGRIL BEACH, JAMAICA

Musically, gastronomically and geographically it's an intensely energising place, with flawless beaches, tumbling rainforest waterfalls, warming jerk flavours and sound systems that transform marketplaces into impromptu parties. The vibe is undeniable, but it's softened, too, by a respect for the laid-back rhythms of Mother Nature.

The result is intoxicating: a place where you can exchange vows in romantic seclusion as the sun sets, toast your union to surging dancehall beats, drink exotic rum cocktails on a ramshackle sun deck, and zip-line through the rainforest canopy. This lush garden of an island is as adventurous or as chilled as you want it to be.

Make a suitcase-full of forever memories with a day along Jamaica’s north-west coast.

There’s nothing like standing in the hush of the dawn light, soft sand between your toes, to witness the sun rise over Jamaica. Or so we’ve heard, anyway. It sounds amazing, but our perfect day starts at a more civilised hour. Maybe save the sunrises for week two of the honeymoon.

Swimming cossies and towels packed, it’s into our car for the day – we’ve hired a private driver for ultimate relaxation – and off to the port town of Ocho Rios in the Parish of St Ann. Scenes from Dr No were shot here but, despite the town and the island’s connection with 007 (Ian Fleming wrote all the Bond novels in Jamaica), we’re here on Her Majesty’s Breakfast Service. The Blue Mont cafe is a fine place to fuel up, not least because it serves (and sells packets of) various blends of Jamaica’s extraordinarily bright and balanced Blue Mountain coffee.

TO WITNESS THE SUN RISE OVER JAMAICA IS AN EXPERIENCE NOT TO BE MISSED

Suitably caffeinated, it’s off to explore a local icon: Dunn’s River Falls. A visit to these world-famous terraced waterfalls is Jamaica 101. Don’t just admire them from below – for the full experience you need to walk hand-in-hand with other visitors, led by a guide, to the top, pausing to soak beneath the cascading water en route.

Next up is Mystic Mountain, which sounds all sorts of Lord of the Rings. Happily you won’t find yourself neck deep in orcs at this popular rainforest attraction, but there is high adventure. First in the shape of the Sky Explorer chairlift ride, which carries you 700 feet above the rainforest. Then with a heart-in-mouth zip-line tour. And finally, our favourite – the twisting, hurtling bobsled ride, inspired by the famous 1988 Jamaican Olympic bobsled team.

We ride the adrenaline wave back into town for lunch at the Ocho Rios Village Jerk Center. No airs and graces here – just fresh, fabulous Jamaican food. The rest of the afternoon is dedicated to relaxation, with a lazy three-mile river-tubing tour of the beautiful White River. The floating guides gently coax their craft under 17th-century Spanish bridges and bamboo canopies, through a historic coconut plantation and down to the Blue Hole – a waterfall-fed swimming hole of the deepest sapphire.

The day ends with an upscale but utterly chilled take on Jamaican cuisine at Miss T’s Kitchen, back in Ocho Rios on Main Street. Chef Jerkie and assistant chef Shelly-Ann work wonders daily. So what’s it going to be: the Honey Crispy Chicken or the Rundown Shrimp, cooked in coconut milk and herbs? There are countless perfect days to be had on this island, but this will definitely do for starters.

HAVANA, CUBA

CUBA

For a unique take on the dream Caribbean wedding, Cuba is hard to top.

And with this largely unspoilt island in the process of opening its faded colonial shutters to the wider world, there's no time like the present to experience its old-world beauty and charm.

Exchange vows in Varadero, where a 20-kilometre-long bar of brilliant white sand is kissed by the warm wash of the Caribbean Sea. Or backdrop your wedding day with Havana's sun-bleached elegance and romantic bolthole bars, which jump to the soundtrack of slapping domino tiles and homegrown jazz.

Once you're happily-ever-aftered, a sensational honeymoon is guaranteed. Enjoy a salsa dancing class, sip pro-grade mojitos at the original, open-air Tropicana Club, and enjoy soaking up the atmosphere wandering Old Havana's colourful warren of streets. In Cuba, a love of life is woven into a thousand little moments. And it doesn't get much more romantic than that.

It's no wonder Walt Disney built the Magic Kingdom in Florida – the Sunshine State positively glows with natural beauty and wonder.

Where else can you find 16th-century Spanish gold coins washing ashore upon pure white sugar sand? Or say your vows in the shade of a secluded lakeside plantation in the morning, and watch rockets thunder into the heavens from an intimate beachfront bistro in the afternoon?

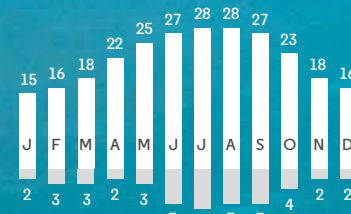

It's all here, whether you want a stunning sunset ceremony and lazy beach living, or a blowout with friends, family and thrill rides for afters. Whatever makes your hearts beat faster, Florida has it all.

FLORIDA

Yvonne Bakouris, Wedding &
Concierge
Co-ordinator, knows how to see Orlando at its most magical...

What's the number one reason people should choose Florida for a wedding or celebration?

When guests think of magical places to have a wedding, they often think of Orlando. It's the perfect place to come to no matter what you like: the hustle and bustle of the theme parks, the relaxation of visiting some of the world's best beaches, superior shopping to suit all budgets, and getting away from it all to see the real Florida, whether it's in nature during an exhilarating airboat ride or visiting some of our small local towns. There truly is something for everyone. Not to mention our fabulous weather!

What's the very first thing your visitors should do after they get settled?

Take a relaxing drive or walk around their resort to get accustomed to where things are located.

Tell us about a side of Orlando that doesn't usually appear in brochures...

My advice to everyone is to get out of town and see where the locals really live. A visit to Mount Dora, for example, to walk around the unique shops and restaurants, and to take a tour on one of the open-air boats.

Are there any unusual or unlikely items that you think visitors ought to pack?

Grooms and guests are best to plan on dark colours in the summer as this won't show the perspiration. A small hand-fan to keep you cool during the ceremony is smart, but also bring a sweater for the evenings from October to April – it can be a little cool, and in the air-conditioning it can be cold!

Describe your all-time, absolute favourite view in Orlando...

For a wedding it would be the oak tree-lined drive up the Cypress Grove Lakeside, as it's so far removed from the rest of the world. As soon as you approach it you feel a sense of relaxation and serenity surround you. As for the resort itself, there's nothing like seeing the fireworks at Cinderella's Castle!

What's your top tip for enjoying a stress-free wedding or celebration in Orlando?

Have everything planned in detail, including your celebration meal, prior to arriving in resort. Know that unexpected things do happen, so try to take it all in your stride. Laughing when you forget a line in your vows will make a cute photograph – the bottom line is that not everything needs to be perfect for you to have your perfect wedding day.

Cypress Grove Lakeside Plantation

Cypress Grove creates a beautiful setting for your wedding, located in 80 acres of spacious grounds with a charming colonial-style house on the stunning Lake Jessamine in Orlando. All of this is somehow hidden away yet within easy access of the theme park capital of the world.

You don't have to love
inverted rollercoasters and fairy castles to want a destination wedding in the Sunshine State.

From coast to coast, Florida is blessed with so many miles of warm, soft sand that it scarcely seems fair to the rest of the world. (You'd think they could spare a bit for Brighton.)

Not that Florida rests on its sandy laurels. Head inland – and not far at that – and you'll enter a world of pro-calibre golf courses, pristine Everglades wilderness, and towns and cities packed from boardwalk to 'burbs with shops, restaurants and entertainment for days.

The best bit? Once you've had your fill of full-throttle Florida, you get to return to your luxurious resort by the ocean, with the wordless romance of coral sunsets, vanishing-point beaches, and that smugly wonderful feeling of having your cake and eating it too.

Sheraton Sand Key Resort

Located on one of the USA's top 10 beaches (bordering the exquisitely warm waters of the Gulf of Mexico), this venue sits in 10 glorious, private acres, giving you a wealth of spots in which you can get married. LAS VEGAS

As the song says, love is a doing word, and the heavyweight entertainment capital of the world is all about doing it big – seizing the moment and living your love without limits. THE CITY OF ENTERTAINMENT

Here, among world-class, world-famous, world-everything resorts you're positively encouraged to live out your wedding and honeymoon fantasies and tap into the playful spirit of adventure that surges up and down the Strip.

Say "I do" at the Little Chapel, then ricochet from A-list residency to Michelin-starred restaurant to poolside superclub.

Take a helicopter ride to the Valley of Fire and exchange vows as ancient rock formations glow deep red in the setting sun. Or get married at the Grand Canyon, then newlywed your way from Venice to New York in the space of one perfect day.

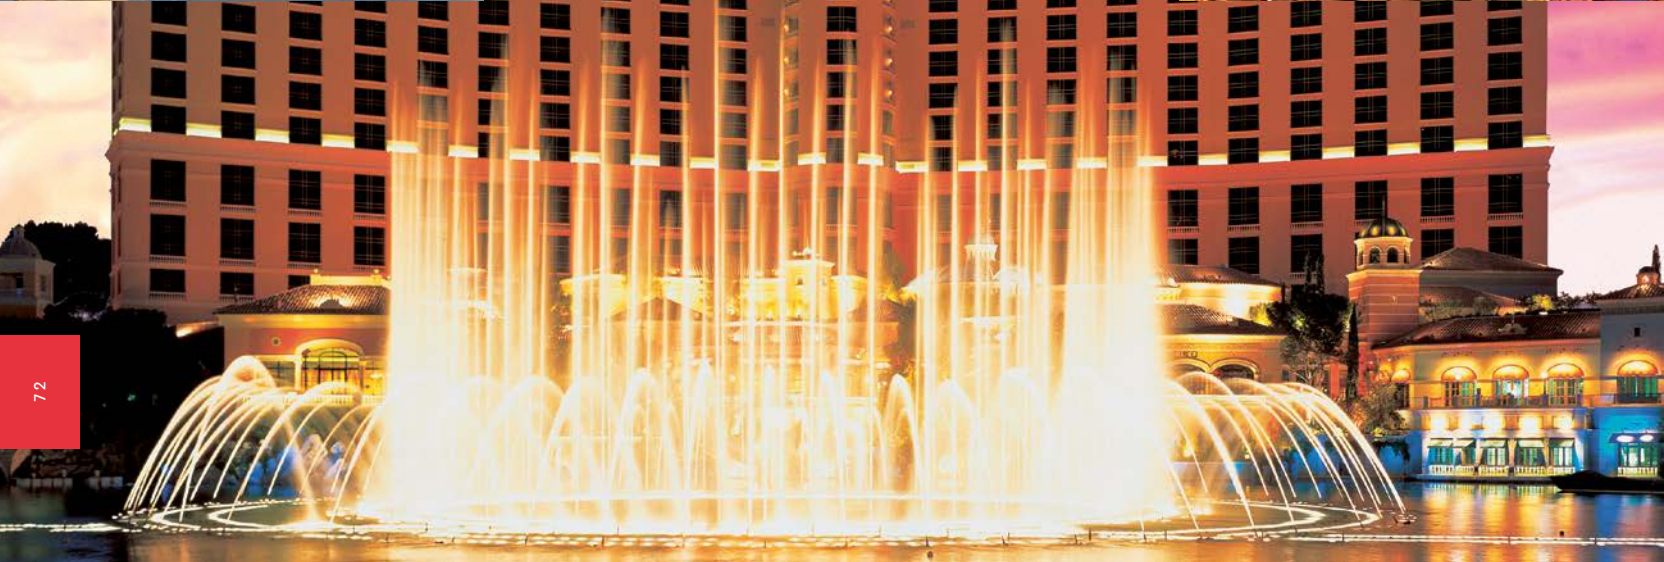

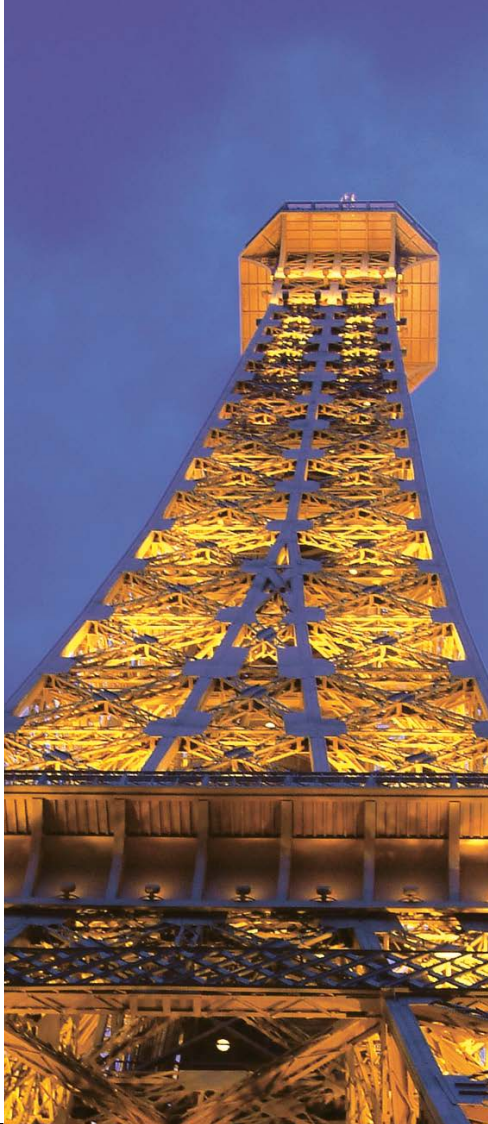

■ AV. TEMPERATURE (°C)
■ AV. RAINFALL (INCHES)

The best view in Las Vegas has to be from the High Roller, an observation wheel in the middle of the Strip that gives you a 360° view of the Las Vegas Valley.

Las Vegas is an insider’s town, so who better to show us the essential Vegas than Michelle Goldberg from the legendary Chapel of the Flowers.

Aside from getting married at Chapel of the Flowers, of course, what would you say are the unmissable experiences for couples in Vegas?

There are so many things to do in Las Vegas. If you’re a foodie, some of the most famous chefs in the world have restaurants in resorts on the Strip. If you love shopping, there are plenty of opportunities on and near Las Vegas Blvd. If you like the outdoors, Red Rock Canyon is an amazing hiking area. One thing I think everyone can agree on is the wonderful entertainment – you must see at least one show on the Strip while in Las Vegas.

What local favourites can you recommend that visitors may not know about?

Locals like Downtown Las Vegas and the Fremont East District. This area has a bunch of trendy bars, great food and live music. While you’re down there, see if the Smith Performing Arts Centre has a show and purchase tickets to see anything from Broadway to local acts. Another great place to visit, not too far from the main part of the Strip, is Town Square, with its shopping, restaurants and nightlife.

What makes Chapel of the Flowers such a wonderful place for a wedding?

There are so many places to tie the knot in Las Vegas, but Chapel of the Flowers is one of the original chapels on the Las Vegas Strip, offering exceptional customer service and all-inclusive amenities perfect for any wedding budget.

What’s your absolute favourite view in Las Vegas?

The best view in Las Vegas has to be from the High Roller, an observation wheel in the middle of the Strip that gives you a 360° view of the Las Vegas Valley. If you like helicopters, the City Lights tour is a great night-time ride over the Strip.

What’s your idea of a perfect romantic day in Las Vegas?

Start off with a couples massage at one of the resorts on the Strip. Then rent a car and go cruising around Las Vegas, stopping to get food for a picnic before heading to the Valley of Fire. After your tour of the Las Vegas Valley, go back to the hotel to get ready for a romantic dinner followed by a gondola ride at the Venetian’s canal shops (you’ll need to call ahead to make reservations for both). Finish your night with a late showing of one of the Cirque du Soleil shows.

Any tips or advice for couples before they come to Las Vegas?

Check the convention and events calendar before picking your wedding date. If there is a large convention or festival coming to Las Vegas, the city gets very busy.

We have to ask – how is Elvis?

Elvis is alive and well in Las Vegas and he performs a lot at Chapel of the Flowers. You can ask our wedding planners more about how to get him to perform at your wedding!

World Famous Drive-Thru

A Special Memory is proud of its place as one of the few Las Vegas chapels with a drive-thru wedding chapel. The drive-thru has become world famous, with countless movies and commercials being filmed there. Stars are sometimes seen driving through, and the chapel also became the first 'run-thru' wedding chapel, for the Las Vegas marathon.

KÀ

A heroic journey of love and conflict, set within ever-changing theatrical landscapes that conjure an entire empire on stage. Presented in an unprecedented performance space, KÀ unfolds on a colossal, 360° rotating stage that forms the backdrop for this cinematic journey of aerial adventure and perpendicular acrobatics.

Annie Hall. Sex and the City. When Harry Met Sally. See? New York’s been sweeping you off your feet for years. So it’s no surprise that it makes an irresistible wedding destination.

If you want a quick ceremony, get married in a New York minute at the City Clerk’s Office, then gorge on the Big Apple’s delights. Or take your time, savouring the moment with an intimate ceremony in Central Park’s only private garden, followed by tickets to the Met or Madison Square Garden. In Sinatra’s city, you always get to have it your way.

And if your budget is more Goodfella than Rockefeller, don’t worry. You’re in love in New York – what more do you need? Grab a Reuben to go from Eisenberg’s and hit the streets. In a town that gave us so many love stories, your next chapter will write itself.

Tamika
Bloodworth, our
East Coast Resort
Supervisor, knows
the Big Apple down to the smallest detail.

What’s the number one reason people should choose New York City for a wedding or celebration?

New York has a pulse – a heartbeat. It’s a melting pot of all different types of people from all walks of life. And what better way to start your life together than doing it in a city where you can be as traditional or non-traditional as you like? A city where the graffiti on the walls, the skyscrapers, Central Park, Top of the Rock, Times Square or even the Subway would make the perfect backdrop to your wedding photographs.

What’s the very first thing your visitors should do after they get settled?

Take a walk, take in the sights, feel the city’s pulse and, of course, EAT!

Tell us about a side of New York that doesn’t usually appear in brochures...

There are so many cool areas other than Manhattan... Williamsburg, Brooklyn; Harlem; City Island; The Hamptons; Long Island Wineries; Astoria, Queens – to name just a few.

Are there any items that you think visitors to the Big Apple ought to pack?

An extra battery for your phone or devices, and a city bag that can hold lots of things. Once you leave the hotel you’re normally out for the day, so it’s good to have everything you need with you.

What local specialities should visitors absolutely try?

A local diner, a slice of NY pizza, Katz’s Deli (where they filmed that scene in When Harry Met Sally), and a black and white cookie.

Describe your all-time, absolute favourite view in New York...

Simple – the view from One World Observatory.

What’s your top tip for enjoying a stress-free wedding or celebration in NYC?

Build time into your itinerary for the unexpected – traffic and weather in particular.

City Clerk’s Office (Hitch and Go)

Want to get married in no-nonsense New Yorker style? Then the Hitch and Go is the ceremony for you. These in-and-out weddings are simple and to the point, and leave you with more time to explore the Big Apple and celebrate your nuptials on the town.

Hawaii’s destination wedding credentials are as old as the islands themselves: it’s said that Madame Pele, goddess of fire, volcanoes and passion, willed these lush and dramatically photogenic islands into being.

Today, the heady fragrances of plumeria and gardenia flowers continue to seduce anyone who seeks Hawaii’s fire and passion.

Each island has its own distinct character. Cosmopolitan Oahu – home to Hawaii’s capital, Honolulu – offers everything from luxury boutiques and fine dining to volcano treks and clapboard shrimp shacks. The breath-taking Valley Isle of Maui boasts over 80 beaches, while Kauai, the wild and waterfall-dotted Garden Isle, will leave you positively spoilt for choice when it comes to picturesque backdrops for those all-important wedding photographs.

Once you’ve honoured Madame Pele with your union, it’s time to kick back with a rainbow-coloured cup of shave ice, watch the surfers and contemplate the adventures you’re going to have tomorrow. Aloha, lovers. Welcome to paradise.

HAWAII

Hawaii Beach Weddings

Simply saying the names of these Hawaiian islands feels like a romantic incantation. The reality is infinitely more special, whichever you choose as the location for your wedding ceremony. Whether it’s lively Oahu, dramatic Maui or the unspoilt garden island of Kauai, your ceremony will be relaxed, informal and surrounded by unadorned nature. Simple, beautiful and so very in keeping with the laid-back vibe of Hawaii.

Is it modesty or a canny desire to protect a good thing that stops Canada from crowing about what a beautiful wedding and honeymoon destination it is?

The second biggest country in the world has more untouched natural beauty than most, from the shining turquoise expanse of Lake Louise, its waters fed by glaciers, via Whistler's fir-draped alpine peaks, which attract adventurous souls all year round, to the Great Lakes and the undeniable majesty of Niagara Falls.

This is a big country in every sense, and that extends to the welcome you'll receive – whether you're enjoying après ski in an intimate bistro in Banff, staring speechless at the view from the glass-domed coach of the Rocky Mountaineer train, or strolling arm-in-arm around the heritage district of Niagara-on-the-Lake.

CANADA

Niagara-on-the-Lake and Niagara Falls Weddings

We're delighted to offer a trio of intimate and romantic venues for your ceremony, with Niagara's spectacular falls no more than a 35-minute drive away. The curved pergola and landscaped grounds of the Oakes Garden Theatre bring you closest to this natural wonder, with 'pinch-me' views of the American falls. Alternatively, exchange vows surrounded by the formal beauty of the Botanical Gardens (just a little downstream), or in the historic town of Niagara-on-the-Lake at a picture-perfect gazebo.

INDIAN OCEAN

One look at the Indian Ocean and you have to ask: can you still call it paradise when there's just so much of it?

This is no hidden garden – it's a whole corner of the globe where you can skip a stone to any compass point and find a postcard-perfect hideaway. If you've always dreamed of exchanging vows on a powder beach flanked by coconut palms and an impossibly clear, sapphire sea, you've hit the tropical jackpot.

With luxury resorts that treat you like royalty, untouched beaches, and flourishing ecosystems above and below the waves, the only 'problem' is choosing your personal paradise. Will it be charming Sri Lanka, with its tea plantations, elephants and unforgettable train rides through cooling hills? The dazzling archipelago of the Seychelles, where romantic beaches with names like Anse Lazio give out onto snorkelling and diving sites that can leave you speechless? Or will it be Mauritius, where an intoxicating mix of Indian, Creole, Chinese and French cultures will seduce your palate and stimulate your senses? Take your pick – every one's a winner.

Véronique Laurent, Weddings & Events Organiser at the Veranda Resorts on Mauritius, lets us in on what it's like to say "I do" in paradise.

Mauritius is pretty perfect to begin with – how do you make it even more special for couples who want to get married there?

Dedicated service, attentive to their needs and requests. We try the utmost to make their dreams come true and make their wedding day stress-free.

What's the best part of your job?

Every wedding is different and there are always new challenges. You never get bored and you're always busy making people happy. You get to know people from all around the world and you share experiences, cultures and traditions and much more. It's a job that makes you grow in many ways. You have the chance to develop your creativity, you learn to be patient and attentive, and it's also useful in your daily life.

What questions do you get asked most by couples?

"What time will the ceremony be?" "Is there someone to help me with my wedding dress?" "Do you know the weather forecast on our wedding day?" And finally, "Do you have a plan B if the weather isn't good?"

Do you have any advice for couples coming to Mauritius to get married?

Just leave all the daily stresses at home and come here with joy, happiness and excitement. It will be enough to make your honeymoon and wedding day perfect.

How would you help a couple decide which of your resorts to have their ceremony at?

It all depends on their expectations. Each of the Veranda Resorts has a concept and provides a unique experience.

Have you had any unusual or last-minute requests that have required you to think on your feet?

Yes! Recently, I had to organise oriental décor for a civil wedding ceremony and I had to find some ideas on Pinterest.

Are there any local wedding customs or activities that you try and incorporate into wedding days at your resorts?

Not really, but at Veranda Pointe aux Biches, whenever we have a couple who book the séga show, we ask them to change their clothes and dress like the dancers to surprise their guests.

Do you have any outfit tips for couples getting married in Mauritius?

Casual chic. There's no need to be dressed as you would be for a wedding at home with hundreds of guests around you. It's quite warm and humid here in Mauritius, so it's better to wear light clothing in order to be comfortable.

What's your favourite view on Mauritius?

There are too many! One of my favourites would be Gunner's Quoin (a tiny, picturesque island just off Mauritius) and also the Black River Gorges National Park.

What's your idea of a perfect, romantic day on Mauritius?

A full-day trip on a catamaran, with a BBQ lunch and Champagne on board, and swimming with dolphins. I'm going far with my dream day – it's the kind of experience that you don't forget.

Maritim

Maritim makes the most of its stunning 62-acre garden location along Turtle Bay National Park, Mauritius. With tropical gardens, a white sandy beach front and an elegant thatched pavilion overlooking the Indian Ocean, you'll be spoilt for choice between the romantic locations to hold your wedding ceremony. It would also be a shame not to spoil yourself beforehand in the spa and tranquillity area, don't you think?

But also consider whale-watching at Hermanus, or taking a leisurely food and wine tour along the Garden Route, or relaxing at the famous V&A Waterfront as you watch the mist rolling down Table Mountain.

FAR EAST

There's a magic to the Far East that defies description, but one thing's for sure: it makes for an extraordinary place to say "I do".

The island of Bali beckons, with conical peaks, rice terraces and perfect crescent beaches. It's a sanctuary, where swimming with turtles is commonplace and rafting through shining rainforests is the perfect prelude to a kaleidoscopic flower bath.

Thailand delights in seducing the senses, with the sight of scarlet lotus blossoms and liquid gold sunsets. With the scent of kaffir and lemongrass, and the sound of water buffalo bells and warm breakers on soft, soft sand. You can exchange your vows against a backdrop of eternal limestone karsts, and dine beneath a canopy of stars, serenaded by gibbons in the forest around you.

What’s the number one reason people should choose Thailand for a wedding or celebration?

Thailand has it all – incredible beaches, iconic temples, lovely people, bustling cities, and it’s great value for money no matter what your budget is.

What’s the very first thing your visitors should do after they get settled?

Explore. Grab a map and get out on foot, eat local food, walk, barter, and after all that treat yourself to a cheap but fabulous foot massage.

Tell us about a side of Thailand that doesn’t usually appear in brochures...

Thailand is a cheap destination to get around, so internal flights make it a great value option for building an itinerary of more than one destination.

A lot of people head to Phuket or Koh Samui on their first trip, but these destinations are great for a multi-centre experience. So you can, for example, twin Phuket with Elephant Hills, or a few nights at Yao Noi. Or, after enjoying the amazing nightlife of Koh Samui, take a short boat ride to Koh Phangan and relax on the quiet beaches there. While it’s hardly a secret, bustling Bangkok is also never to be missed.

What local specialities should visitors absolutely try?

Thai green curry, pad Thai, papaya salad, Thai basil, dragon fruit... Yum!

Describe your all-time, absolute favourite view in Thailand...

Six Senses Yao Noi – not only does it rank as my favourite view in Thailand but also in the whole wide world. OMG, amazing, amazing, amazing! I have been lucky enough to travel to some beautiful places but this takes the biscuit.

Huge limestone cliffs rise out of the crystal clear Andaman Sea, creating formations that are unique to a handful of locations in Asia. Just 40 minutes by speedboat from Phuket, this is the honeymoon destination to brag about.

And if you haven’t had your fill of the view by day, by night I can recommend watching James Bond’s The Man With the Golden Gun, filmed in the bay, with a cocktail and popcorn at the hotel’s cinema on the beach.

Maya Ubud Resort & Spa

Maya Ubud exists to replenish body and mind with authentic cuisine, spa treatments and activities that take inspiration from Bali’s breathtaking natural environment. Bordered by the Petanu River valley to the east and the Peliatan rice fields to the west, its cluster of thatched, private-pool villas seem to grow out of the lush valley wall. With the early-morning mist lifting from the valley, Maya Ubud is revealed as an unforgettable wedding backdrop.

Your questions answered

Will our overseas marriage be legal in the UK?

Virgin Holidays' overseas weddings are registered in the country where they take place, but are also legally recognised in the UK. If you don't live permanently in the UK, please check with your own embassy and the embassy of the country you're getting married in as requirements can be different depending on nationalities. Our wedding packages can only be booked as part of a complete Virgin Holidays package. For legal requirements for all the featured wedding destinations, please read pages 112–113 in this brochure.

Can we invite guests to our wedding?

Definitely! This is a very popular way to get married overseas. Just let us know how many guests will be attending and our reservations team will assist in booking their holiday. If you are planning to invite guests to your wedding and they are staying in a separate resort, please check with the Weddings

Team to see if it's possible for them to enter your hotel and use its facilities, as this is not always the case. Some resorts allow visitors to come into the resort on day passes for an additional charge; however, it's worth noting that resorts can, and do, limit visits from outside guests and sometimes hotels do not allow children at all. Please note we are unable to arrange wedding receptions. They are not included in your all-inclusive board basis and would be at an extra cost (payable locally).

What day of the week will our wedding take place?

The majority of resorts require a three-working-day residency period before the ceremony can take place. Most wedding ceremonies take place Mon-Fri (excluding public holidays). Once the date of your wedding ceremony has been confirmed by the resort, we will then confirm this to you in writing. In very exceptional circumstances, the date of your wedding may have to be rescheduled. This point is worth remembering if you intend to print wedding invitations or have jewellery engraved. We cannot be held liable for any associated costs of such items should the wedding date change.

When will we get our marriage certificate?

It could take up to six months to be processed and mailed to you, so if you are planning a marriage blessing when you get back to the UK, please bear this in mind. If you want more than one certificate, request this in-resort.

What are the legal requirements?

The exact legal documentation required for each destination is subject to change and is set by the respective country. Virgin Holidays' Weddings Team will endeavour to advise you of any changes to these requirements as soon as possible. Virgin Holidays cannot be held accountable for any changes in legislation or for any resulting fees payable by the wedding couple in order to comply with these legalities.

What is an Affidavit?

This can be obtained from a notary public (who is usually found through a solicitor's office). The document should explain that you are free to marry while there and confirm your marital status. Costs can vary considerably from solicitor to solicitor. The solicitor's office will need to sign and stamp the affidavit.

What is a Certificate of No Impediment?

This document is required for weddings in Bali and Ulusaba, and it states that there is no known impediment to your proposed marriage. These certificates vary in their validity (sometimes just for a few months), so it is extremely important that you check the requirements which apply to your circumstances. Please also note that a Certificate of No Impediment may be insufficient on its own to allow a marriage to take place in a foreign country. The certificate is prepared by the Superintendent Registrar at the Register Office in the area in which you live. The cost of the certificate is approximately £45 per person and is valid for three months. You will need to take identification documents with you to your appointment; this will be explained to you by the receptionist. Subject to there being no complications, the Certificate of No Impediment will be issued to you between 17-23 days after your appointment.

Where will the wedding be registered?

When a marriage takes place abroad under foreign local law it cannot be registered in the UK. However, a record of the marriage can be lodged with the Foreign and Commonwealth Office via the General Register Office (telephone 0300 123 1837) by depositing an original marriage certificate. This only applies to certain countries, and where it is possible a fee will be required. This means that in future a marriage certificate could be issued by the General Register Office here, should the need arise.

What is a Decree Absolute?

Proof is required if the parties have been divorced (or their marriage has been annulled). Documents to prove the dissolution or annulment must be provided. Once a divorce or annulment has been made final, the court will send you a Decree Absolute, which will bear a red or embossed court seal. This decree must bear the court stamp, as without it your wedding may not take place. In some countries couples who have divorced cannot re-marry until a full 12 months have passed since divorcing.

What is an Apostille?

An Apostille is an official confirmation that a signature, seal or stamp appearing on a document is genuine. It can be obtained at the legislation service of the Foreign & Commonwealth Office.

What certified documents do I need to provide?

These can be provided by a solicitor who is legally granted to carry out this process. The original document must be supplied to the solicitor to copy, for example an original birth certificate. This will be photocopied, stamped (which should include the name of the solicitor) and signed by a solicitor indicating that it is a true copy of an original document. In the event that you are required to provide certified copies, we would ask that any signatures obtained from your solicitor are given in red or blue ink. This will help the overseas authorities and ensure that certified copies are not mistaken for a photocopy.

How do we book optional extras?

When you have booked your holiday we will send you details of your local wedding co-ordinator in your chosen resort, who will be happy to liaise with you regarding any additional wedding ceremony options available for your location. These can be requested before you travel directly with the hotel or venue. Payment for any extras that are not included in the cost of your wedding should be made locally, or prepaid before you travel (prices are subject to change locally without notice).

Where will our wedding ceremony take place?

After consulting with the wedding co-ordinator, you can choose the location of your ceremony – usually in the hotel grounds or a gazebo. A beach ceremony is not always possible, but you can, if you like, head down to the sea afterwards for a celebratory glass or two of Champagne.

What's included in a Virgin Holidays Wedding?

At most resorts and venues we offer a choice of several wedding packages, as described in this brochure. The package is for the bride and groom, unless otherwise stated. After choosing the package that appeals to you, simply book it in conjunction with your Virgin holiday.

Who will conduct our ceremony?

The majority of our weddings are conducted by a marriage officer, although their title may vary depending on the resort – e.g. Celebrant, Minister or Registrar. Where it is possible to be married by a Minister the ceremony will be non-denominational unless otherwise stated.

Why do I need to have my birth certificate re-issued?

For weddings taking place in Mauritius, the Mauritian government now requires all couples to have their birth certificates re-issued and dated within three months of their wedding date. Do this and you won't have to visit the Attorney at Law and Supreme High Court in Mauritius. You'll still need to visit the Civil Status Main Office in Port Louis and the Civil Status Sub Office. New UK birth certificates can be ordered online from the General Register Office (gro.gov.uk) and cost £9.25 per certificate plus delivery. If you hold a non-UK birth certificate, check with your own embassy for advice on how to obtain a new certificate. Where it is not possible to obtain a duplicate birth certificate, arrangements must be made to complete an Affidavit, while in Mauritius, at an additional cost. This signed Affidavit must be paid for in advance and can take up to a day to arrange in-resort.

Is it possible to organise a private reception with our guests after the ceremony?

To celebrate the end of your special day, your resort wedding co-ordinator can organise a reception meal for you and your guests so you can keep the celebration going. Please bear in mind receptions are not included in your holiday and will come at an extra cost, which is paid directly to the resort. You may wish to check this in advance if booking for a large wedding party, so you're aware of these additional costs prior to booking your wedding package with us.

Essential info

NIAGARA FALLS, CANADA

All weddings are subject to availability. This brochure contains details of weddings only. Please note the packages featured in this brochure are for travel between January–December 2017. In order to book a wedding package, the wedding couple must have a holiday confirmed with Virgin Holidays. We do not only sell weddings. Our Essential Information MUST be read in conjunction with the terms and conditions and useful information, as stated in the brochure/website from which your holiday is booked. These conditions govern your relationship with Virgin Holidays and set out details of Virgin Holidays’ obligations in relation to any Virgin holiday you book or that is booked on your behalf. Please be aware that these terms include limitations on the liability of Virgin Holidays and its obligations relating to any holiday and certain exclusions of Virgin Holidays’ responsibility. Here is a brief summary of our liability clause; the full clause appears in our full set of booking conditions. Before making your booking, you must have read and accepted the full version of all the booking conditions that appear in the brochure or on the website from which your holiday is booked.

Our liability to you

Subject to our full booking conditions, we promise that your holiday arrangements will be made, performed or provided with reasonable skill and care. This means that we will accept responsibility if, for example, you suffer death or personal injury or your contracted arrangements are not provided as promised or prove deficient as a result of the failure of ourselves, our employees, agents or suppliers to use reasonable skill and care in making, performing or providing your arrangements. Further, we will be responsible for what our employees, agents and suppliers do or do not do if they were at the time acting within the course of their employment or carrying out work we had asked them to do. However, our liability in all cases shall be limited to a maximum of three times the cost of your travel arrangements. We will not be liable for any injury, illness or death, or consequent losses suffered by you or any member of your party, unless you are able to prove that such injury or illness was caused by lack of reasonable care and skill on the part of ourselves or our suppliers in the performance of our obligations under our contract with you. In all claims of whatever nature, we will not be liable where the alleged loss or damage results from any of the following:

- a) The fault of the person(s) affected or any member(s) of their party or
- b) The fault of a third party not connected with the provision of your holiday which we could not have predicted or avoided or
- c) An event or circumstances which we or the supplier of the service(s) in question could not have predicted or avoided even after taking all reasonable care or
- d) The fault of anyone who was not carrying out work for us (generally or in particular) at the time.

Our liability is limited in accordance with our full booking conditions and in respect of international travel by air, sea and rail, the extent of our liability will in all cases be limited as if we were carriers under the appropriate conventions.

Unless otherwise stated, wedding packages are for the bride and groom only. In order to book a wedding package, the couple must have a Virgin Holidays booking.

All weddings are on a request-only basis and subject to availability.

All Virgin Holidays wedding packages are subject to payment of an additional deposit at the time of booking, some of which are non-refundable and are in addition to your holiday deposit. Please note, your wedding will not be confirmed, and no contract is in place, until you have received written confirmation from Virgin Holidays. Although Virgin Holidays will advise the venue/resort of the requested time of the wedding ceremony, the actual time will only be confirmed in resort upon arrival. As such, Virgin Holidays accepts no responsibility for the actual time the ceremony takes place.

Any requested wedding extras are payable by you in resort and are subject to change without prior notification. Free weddings are not combinable with any other special offers, which may from time to time be available.

Wedding packages DO NOT include any accommodation.

As Virgin Holidays has no jurisdiction over hotels/resorts/venues and their charges, we cannot be responsible for any increase or change to these wedding arrangements. We will, however, endeavour to advise you of changes as soon as these are made known to us.

Original documents are required for all wedding packages. Virgin Holidays will advise what is required to obtain a licence for your chosen destination and will advise you if we receive notification of any changes from resort or the venue. It is your responsibility to ensure that you have your original documentation with you at all times.

If additional documentation is required to obtain a marriage licence – e.g. affidavits – or your documentation needs to be legalised, translated or certified, then the cost of this is not included in your wedding package. In some destinations this may prove expensive. Please call the Weddings Team for more information.

While it is unlikely that we will have to make any changes to your arrangements, occasionally we may have to make changes and we reserve the right to do so at any time. Most of these changes will be minor and we will advise you or your travel agent of them at the earliest possible opportunity. We also reserve the right in any circumstances to cancel your travel arrangements. However, we will not cancel your arrangements less than 12 weeks before your departure date, except for reasons of force majeure or failure by you to pay the final balance. Please see our booking conditions for full details. You may cancel your wedding or your holiday arrangements at any time (however, you may not cancel your holiday arrangements without also cancelling your wedding). Written notification of the cancellation must be received at our offices. Since we incur costs in cancelling your wedding and holiday arrangements, you will have to pay both the cancellation charge applicable to your holiday as detailed in the grid shown here and the cancellation charges imposed by the local wedding operator. These may be to the full value of the cost of the wedding and are in addition to any cancellation charges on the holiday cost. Full details will be provided by our Weddings Team.

Certain arrangements may not be cancelled after they have been confirmed and any cancellation could incur a cancellation charge of up to 100% of that part of the arrangements. Any changes by you to the date of the wedding ceremony will be subject to an amendment fee of £25 per person.

No special arrangements exist for transportation of a wedding dress (unless passengers are travelling with Virgin Atlantic in Upper Class).

Our dedicated Weddings Team will be able to answer all your questions, so please don’t hesitate to contact them on 0344 557 3999.
